Extended Opportunity Programs and Services/
Cooperative Agencies and Resources for Education
1500 North Verdugo Road
Glendale, CA 91208
Phone 818-240-1000 ex 6900

10/11/2010

Dear EOPS Student,

We have extended the second counseling contact deadline to October 27.

The group Counseling and Workshop schedules are now online on EOPS website. You may call or stop by EOPS office to sign up for these sessions. Use the following links to access the schedule:

Group Counseling
http://vision.glendale.edu/index.aspx?page=2344

Improving College Performance Workshops
http://vision.glendale.edu/index.aspx?page=930

FAFSA Completion Workshops
http://vision.glendale.edu/index.aspx?page=930

Here is how your EOPS Counseling Contact Requirement may be met:

- Meet with your EOPS counselor on APPOINTMENT or WALK-IN BASIS
- Attend one of the EOPS GROUP COUNSELING sessions (click here for schedule or see attached)
  Attend one of the FAFSA COMPLETION workshops offered jointly by EOPS and Financial Aid (FA) offices (click here for schedule or see attached)
- In addition, if you are on Academic or Progress probation you need to enroll in SD141 2nd 8-week course and/or attend the Improving College Performance workshop (click here for schedule)

NOTE: No more than one contact will be counted for participating in EOPS Group Counseling sessions and EOPS/FAO-FAFSA workshops.

Make sure to visit your EOPS counselor before October 27, 2010 to satisfy your second counseling contact requirement.

What can be done during an "Appointment"?

- Study List
- Financial Aid Contract
- UC/CSU/Private University Transfer application
- SEP-new, change or update
- Change of major/goal
- Food for Thought Application
- Scholarship Application
- Graduation check, petition or review of transfer curriculum
- Letter of Recommendation
- Anything else done during walk-in visit

What can be done during a "Walk-In"?

*Schedule changes
*Study List
*Quick Questions (i.e. Deadlines)
*Petitions (i.e. Count the Higher Grade)
*Requests for course revisions-FA Contract

On October 14 and 15 all counselors will be seeing students on walk-in basis to accommodate scholarship deadline of October 15, 2010.

Call EOPS office at (818)240-1000X6900 to schedule your counseling appointment, or stop by for walk-in counseling. You may call each morning for the walk-in counseling schedule for that day.

Remember to visit EOPS website for additional information and helpful links.

Thank you,

EOPS Staff