State of the College Address

Doing What You Love— A Formula for Success

DR. DAWN LINDSAY

Superintendent/President, Glendale Community College

Join Dr. Dawn Lindsay, Superintendent/President of Glendale Community College, as she presents the 2011 State of the College Address. Dr. Lindsay will share how the college responded to the educational commitments made last year. In addition, she will discuss the curricular and financial challenges the college is facing during these difficult fiscal times.

BETTY PORTO

Vice President, Porto's Bakery

Have you considered starting your own business, or just want to hear the story behind a very successful small business right here in Glendale? If the answer to either of these questions is yes, then you need to attend this presentation. Betty Porto will present how "doing what you love" can be a formula for success. We may never know the secret of their recipes, but we will learn about the secrets of their success. Students who want extra credit for this event should visit the graphic link on the Glendale College homepage.
