SLOs for NS 203

- SLO # 1. Student will collaborate in a group's selection of most appropriate nursing intervention for a given goal.
- SLO # 2. Student will utilize appropriate evidence based research in application of new knowledge in providing nursing care

SLOs for NS 213

- SLO #1. Student will demonstrate understanding of common drugs and calculate correct dosage of drugs before providing patient care and medication administration
- SLO #2. Student will complete 3 successful Intravenous starts on the virtual IV program before performing phlebotomy on a patient in the hospital
- SLO #3. Student will recognize abnormal arterial blood gases (ABGs) and distinguish major conditions that cause changes in ABGs
- SLO #4. Student will demonstrate understanding of basic cardiac function and interpret cardiac dysrythmias
- SLO #5. Student will successfully complete a nursing care plan before finishing third semester.