FINANCIAL AID OFFICE 2012-2013 REQUEST FOR REVIEW OF AWARD YEAR INCOME DATA Dependent Student

Special Circumstances

I M P O R T A N T

Federal regulations require all applicants to report calendar year 2011 income figures on their 2012-2013 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Federal regulations also allow the Financial Aid Office to revise the information on your financial aid application for award year 2012-2013, if special circumstances exist. Examples of special circumstances include: loss of student's or parents' income due to lay-off or termination of employment, separation, divorce, or other mitigating circumstances beyond your or your parents' control.

By following the instructions below you may request a review of income data. If your request is granted, the Financial Aid Office will change the income information originally reported on your FAFSA to reflect your and your parents' income for the 2012-2013 award year. All requests will be reviewed by a Financial Aid Advisor. Not all requests are granted. Requests are approved or denied based on the information provided.

FINANCIAL AID OFFICE IRS Request for Transcript of Tax Return

If you or your parents filed federal tax returns with the IRS, you may be eligible to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, which is the best and easiest way to provide accurate tax information. With just a few simple steps you can view information from your or your parents' 2011 IRS tax return and transfer that information directly into your 2012-2013 FAFSA (www.fafsa.gov). If you transfer the data from the IRS to your FAFSA (and the information remains unchanged), you will not be required to provide transcripts of tax returns for 2011. This option is only available for married parents if they filed a joint tax return.

An IRS Transcript of Tax Return for 2012 federal tax returns is required if this appeal is submitted after April 15, 2013.

A separate Transcript of Tax Return is needed for each tax return filed

A Transcript of Tax Return from the IRS shows most line items from your federal tax return (Form 1040, 1040A or 1040EZ) as it was originally filed, including any accompanying forms and schedules. It does not reflect any changes you, your representative or the IRS made after the return was filed. If your parents are married but filed separate federal tax returns, we need a tax transcript for each parent. If you and/or your parents are not eligible or choose not to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool you have several options for providing this information.

Order a Transcript of Tax Return online at www.IRS.gov. Click on "Order a Return or Account Transcript" and then click on "Order a Transcript". Provide the required information to request a "Return Transcript" for "2011". Online requests cannot be processed if you need the transcript mailed to an address other than the one the IRS has on file for you.

OR

Fill out the Short Form Request for Individual Tax Return Transcripts (Form 4506T-EZ). Go to the IRS website at http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/f4506tez.pdf and complete the form. For question #6 enter "2011". Be sure the taxpayer signs the bottom of the page where it says "Sign Here". The form must be printed and mailed to the appropriate IRS address found under "If you filed an individual return and lived in" on page 2 of the 4506T-EZ or it can be faxed to (559) 456-5876. You can expect your transcript to be sent within 5 to 10 days from the time the IRS receives your signed request.

OR

• If you need information from other IRS forms, such as Form W-2 or Form 1099, you can use the Request for Transcript of Tax Return (Form 4506-T). Go to the IRS website at http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/f4506t.pdf and complete the form. For question #9 you should enter "2011". Be sure the taxpayer signs the bottom of the page where it says "Sign Here". The form must be printed and mailed to the appropriate IRS address found under "Chart for individual transcripts (Form 1040 series and Form W-2 and Form 1010)" on page 2 of the 4506-T or it can be faxed to (559) 456-5876. You can expect your transcript to be sent within 5 to 10 days from the time the IRS receives your signed request.

OR

• Call the IRS at (800) 908-9946 and order a Transcript of Tax Return for 2011.
